I Love a Piano

I love a piano, I love a piano
I love to hear somebody play
Upon a piano, a grand piano
It simply carries me away

I know a fine way to treat a Steinway
I love to run my fingers o'er the keys, the ivories

And with the pedal I love to meddle
When Padarewski comes this way
I'm so delighted if I'm invited
To hear that long haired genius play

So you can keep your fiddle and your bow
Give me a P-I-A-N-O, oh, oh
I love to stop right beside an upright
Or a high toned Baby Grand

Dear Students, Teachers, Parents and Friends:

On behalf of the faculty, staff and students of the Fred Fox School of Music at the University of Arizona, I welcome you to the 65th annual piano ensemble concert. It is a pleasure to host this event and welcome back emeritus professor Tim Kolosick to lead the festivities.

As we all know, learning a musical instrument has so many benefits. The discipline and creativity necessary to perform can be applied to every area in life. So many leaders in industry and technology point to their music lessons as playing a pivotal role in their development. Today, each of the parents present today is providing these children an opportunity to create, cooperate and grow.

The Fred Fox School of Music is a dynamic and comprehensive institution, preparing musicians as artists, educators and scholars to enrich communities everywhere. We offer hundreds of concerts, recitals, master classes, conferences and workshops every year, with many of these events free of charge to our community. We invite you to visit our school, attend our concerts, and learn how music can enrich every life. Visit music.arizona.edu for more information.

Cheers!

Sincerely,

Greetings to Students, Parents, and Teachers:

Tonight's performers are fortunate to have the opportunity to perform on the University of Arizona's Centennial Hall stage. It is our pleasure to provide these lovely, high-quality grand pianos for the concert. As with any activity that requires the proper equipment, it is of utmost importance that music students have the best possible instruments for practicing and performance. You are invited to visit our store to become more informed on what makes a quality piano and how important it is to your child's musical progress and enjoyment.

ENSEMBLE HISTORY

The Tucson Music Teachers Association's Piano Ensemble has been an annual event since 1953.

TMTA members Winifred Knight and Janice McCurnin organized the first ensemble concert with Dr. James R. Anthony, University of Arizona Professor of Music History and Piano Instruction, as the conductor. Dr. Anthony continued to serve as conductor for forty years. He retired after the Ensemble's 40th anniversary concert in 1993.

Subsequent conductors have been Dr. Joan Ashcraft (1994-2003), Dr. Michael Ard (2004), and Dr. Timothy Kolosick from 2005 to the present.

The first concert in 1953 had an enrollment of fifty-six students from eight teachers. Compare this with the hundreds of students and scores of teachers in recent decades.

Other groups involved with concerts have included the Amphitheater Concert Choir, Tucson Junior Strings, Children of Baboquivari, Sahuaro Singers, and the Tucson Ballet Company. Various composers have been commissioned to write music, and arrangements and compositions by local composers and teachers have been used.

TMTA teachers give immeasurable amounts of time in planning and organizing the Ensemble concerts; however, even the best rehearsed plans go awry! At one memorable concert, student performers entered and took their places. Dr. Anthony raised his baton. The music began with two different groups performing separate pieces on stage!

TMTA continues to provide piano students the opportunity to perform within an ensemble and respond visually to a conductor. Students are gratified and proud of playing a part in the successful production of a memorable, formal performance which showcases their talents and many hours of hard work.

CONCERT ETIQUETTE

We believe that music enriches the soul. We believe that putting music in the hearts of children will make them better human beings. We hope this concert will express the finer aspects of the human experience. To that end, we ask all concert participants and audience members to:

- ♪ Refrain from using cell phones or electronic devices
- ♪ Remain in your seats during the performance
- ♪ Stay and hear the entire concert
- ♪ Listen quietly with an open heart
- ♪ Enjoy the unique musical experience!

J. Timothy Kolosick, Ph.D., is Professor Emeritus at the University of Arizona School of Music. He has been a specialist in applications of high technology to music analysis, performance, and instruction. He is the author of numerous articles, books, and award-winning music computer software and is a recipient of the Five-Star Teaching Award at the University of Arizona. Dr. Kolosick is a former director of the Peter Treistman Fine Arts Center for New Media, the research arm of the College of Fine Arts. His work with keyboard ensembles began in 1992 with a grant that founded Orchestra Nova, a live keyboard orchestra. He is past conductor of the Yamaha-sponsored Clavinova Festival. He holds degrees from the University of the Pacific, Conservatory of Vienna, University of London, and University of Wisconsin-Madison. He was the Assistant Conductor at the Vienna Conservatory and a member of the conducting staff of the Wisconsin Youth Symphony Orchestras. A Fulbright Professor Exchange took him back to London to teach music theory and conducting at Goldsmiths College. His conducting professors include Kyung Soo Won, Gustav Koslik, and Catherine Comet.
