STUDENT SPEAKERS

ARTURO SOSA - Salutatorian for 2018

Arturo taught himself English at a young age and excelled in his educational efforts to arrive at Phoenix College. He worked very hard and his bravery paid off. Arturo has been involved in community activities, as well as helping to organize the Hunger Banquet and Tunnel of Oppression on our campus. Because of his dedication, he now holds the position of FBLA Phi Beta Lambda President. Arturo will continue to be a role model to others in finding their voice and strength and to discover the beauty and value of diversity. Arturo will receive his Associate in Business General Requirement's degree tonight. Please join me in welcoming Arturo Sosa, who will give the salutation on behalf of the Class of 2018.

IBRAHIM IBRAHIM - Valedictorian for 2018

Growing up in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, Ibrahim endured insults and assaults on a daily basis. He said, "No matter what life threw at me, I always came out strong because defeat was never in my nature." Ibrahim certainly has proven that to be true. He plans to transfer to ASU and work toward a Ph.D. in Biology with a long-term goal to achieve a Medical Degree and become a researcher. Ibrahim believes everyone has potential within himself or herself. He is graduating tonight with an Associate in Arts degree. It is my sincere pleasure to introduce this outstanding representative of the Class of 2018, your valedictorian, Ibrahim Ibrahim.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

In colleges and universities, academic degrees are conferred at commencement exercises. Originally, the term "commencement" meant the inception of the student graduate as a teacher and his recognition as such by his master and other members of the profession. Thus, the term once marked an actual beginning.

The processional and recessional of students and faculty dressed in academic regalia is a traditional part of these commencement exercises. The history of academic dress goes back to the medieval universities. In the 12th and 13th centuries, when universities were taking form, they were under the jurisdiction of the church. Those studying wore a habit or cloak to which was attached a cowl or hood which could be pulled up over the head or thrown back, according to weather conditions. Later, the gown served the dual purpose of providing warmth in the unheated halls as well as uniformity of dress.

The hood seems to have had three uses: a covering, a shoulder cape, and a bag for collecting alms. It is believed that when large wigs were worn, the cape part of the hood was cut open in front and the entire garment, cape and hood proper, was allowed to fall back, producing approximately the effect seen today. After wigs went out of fashion, the original shape was not restored. The master's hood is longer than the bachelor's and the doctor's longer than the master's Gowns commonly worn in the colleges and universities of this country have pointed sleeves for the bachelor's degree, long closed sleeves (with a slit for the arm) for the master's degree, and bell-shaped open sleeves for the doctor's degree. The master's and bachelor's gowns have no trimming. The gown for the doctor's degree is faced down the front with black velvet with three bars of the same across the sleeves; or these facings and cross bars may be of velvet of the color distinctive of the faculty or subject to which the degree pertains.

The cap is an essential part of the academic dress and it is to be retained on the head throughout all academic exercises except during prayer. In particular, the cap is not to be removed at any point in the conferment of a degree.

All hoods are lined with silk showing the official colors of the institution which conferred the degree, and all are trimmed in specified widths with velvet signifying the degree. Following are some of the colors that may be seen on hoods:

ARTS AND LETTERS—white
BUSINESS & ACCOUNTANCY—drab
DENTISTRY—lilac
ECONOMICS—copper
EDUCATION—light blue
ENGINEERING—orange
FINE ARTS (inc. Architecture)—brown
HUMANITIES/JOURNALISM—crimson
LAW—purple
LIBRARY SCIENCE—lemon

MEDICINE—green
MUSIC—pink
NURSING—apricot
PHARMACY—olive green
PHILOSOPHY—dark blue
PHYSICAL EDUCATION—sage green
PUBLIC HEALTH—salmon pink

Phoenix College Alma Mater

"Hail Phoenix College"

*Hail Phoenix College! Cheer her bright name,
Deep in our hearts will her mem'ry remain - forever.
Down through the ages praises shall sound
Honor and glory her name renowned.
Soon our college days will be gone,
But in life's storm and stress whatever we may do
Our loyalty will ever be strong, Our Alma Mater, we will be true.*
